The West Virginian will be delivered to any home in Mannington every evening by Smith & Millan News Dealers

Frank Ward, formerly of Mannington, is visiting his parents here for a few days. Mr. Ward is now employed at the Gasaway Hotel at Elkins.

Mrs. Andrew Monroe announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Nova, to Mr. Loren O. Strader, of Newburg, W. Va. Miss Monroe is well known and has many friends in the city. Mr. Strader is employed with the Citizens Wholesale Supply Co., of Columbus, Ohio, and is also well known here. Dr. C. S. Thomas was a business visitor in Mannington Wednesday.

N. C. Parrish, of Spartansburg, Pa. is visiting relatives here for a few days. Jason Hollobaugh, a local man, has accepted the agency for the Saxon Motor Car. The Saxon is a six-cylinder car, equipped with all the latest fixtures, and sells for $785.00. This business is not entirely new to Mr. Hollobaugh, and it is thought that he will have good success.

The meeting at the Presbyterian church is becoming the greatest in the history of Mannington. Rev. Birch, "The Man behind the Horn," is indeed a great evangelist and his efforts, with those of the pastor, are being rewarded with the highest success.

Special Meetings At Mannington Christian Church

MANNINGTON, Dec. 10.—The special meetings being held at the Christian church are very successful. The churchgoing people of Mannington are very much pleased at the success of the revival meetings being held in the various churches of the town. The meetings at the Christian church have been especially successful, and the worth of Dr. Mitchell's sermons has been shown by the number of people who have taken up the cross. Between thirty-five and forty persons have taken a stand for Christ and are beginning a new road that leads to the higher and better life.

Efforts are being made also to collect enough money to pay the church debt, and Dr. Mitchell has thus far received much encouragement, as he has raised about $2,500 towards payment of the debt. Throughout the meeting Dr. Mitchell has been aided by Prof. Weizel, who is in charge of the song service. A large crowd has attended all the meetings and they will be continued until the end of the week.

Saturday Sale.

Saturday morning the U. A. Clayton Class of the Presbyterian Sunday School will hold a sale at Snider Bros'. Grocery of useful, handy articles suitable for Christmas presents. A rare opportunity will be afforded patrons to procure photographs of famous oil paintings.

Mince and pumpkin pies, cakes, doughnuts, cookies and candies will also be on sale. 12-10-21
